

Test Document for RAG

1. History: The French Revolution began in 1789 and marked the end of absolutism in France. One of the most famous mottos associated with this movement is 'Liberty, Equality, Fraternity'.
2. Science: Water is composed of two hydrogen atoms and one oxygen atom (H₂O). It covers approximately 71% of the Earth's surface.
3. Technology: Artificial Intelligence (AI) is a field of computer science that aims to create machines capable of performing tasks that would normally require human intelligence.
4. Curiosity: The fastest animal in the world is the peregrine falcon, which can reach speeds over 300 km/h during its dives.
5. Geography: Brazil is the largest country in South America and the fifth largest in the world by land area.